MSGB Attitude!

- 1. Go outside your comfort zones. Take new "risks" as often as you can.
- Be prepared for challenges. Have "plan b" options in case you need them.
- 3. Take time each day to "reflect" on what you have learned and done.
- 4. Actively engage in your classes and program activities.
- 5. Focus on building your strengths.
- 6. Balance your "work" time and personal "fun" time. You need both.

Top 10 Ways to Lead Yourself to Excellence

- 1. Read each syllabus carefully know and understand what is expected of you
- 2. Attend each class session prepared to contribute to the discussion, speak up, & stay focused
- 3. Aim high do the most rather than the minimum
- 4. Conduct yourself with the highest level of honesty, integrity, and professionalism
- 5. Write well if you need support, check out our PGBS writing resources
- 6. Be the team member everyone wants on their team
- Actively seek out new teammates with different perspectives when possible diversity + inclusion
- 8. Help your classmates become better leaders through honest, constructive feedback
- Work together and help each other. You are a cohort you are not fully successful unless ALL of you succeed
- 10. Stay strong to the end graduation is coming!
