Graduate School of Education and Psychology   Form-MCPD

Faculty Multicultural Professional Development Request

- Funds are budgeted for education and training for faculty to become more multiculturally responsive in teaching courses in the fields of education and psychology, instructing/supervising students from multiculturally diverse backgrounds, and preparing students for work in diverse communities.
- Maximum funds available per faculty member per year will be $1200.00.
- Requests are approved and prioritized for funding based on the MCPD guidelines.
- A separate form for each MCPD request should be submitted electronically to the Dean's Office, and ranked in order of priority (i.e., 1, 2, 3).
