

Dear Pepperdine Staff Colleagues:

You are invited to participate in the Pepperdine 2030 strategic planning process. The Strategic Planning Task Force is in the midst of collecting input from faculty, staff, students, and alumni about the University's future. In collaboration with Human Resources, we have scheduled three upcoming Zoom sessions that are specifically for Pepperdine staff members. I hope that you will consider participating in one of these sessions.

We find ourselves at a significant moment in the University's history. During the fall we witnessed the inauguration of President Jim Gash as Pepperdine's 8th President. The University is also nearing the end of our current strategic plan, Pepperdine 2020: Boundless Horizons, which has guided us over the last decade. And we are in this most unusual moment marked by telecommuting, social distancing, and disrupted routines. As we address the immediate challenges, we also want to lift our eyes and think together about our future.

The dates and times of the staff strategic planning sessions are listed below. Space is limited and you will need to register in advance to participate. Please do not register for more than one session. Once you are registered, you will receive additional information about the session.

Gratefully,

Tim Perrin

Senior Vice President for Strategic Implementation
