

Supervisor Town Hall: Navigating Return to Campus Scenarios

Thursday, July 9, 2020
10-11 AM

Lauren Cosentino

Vice President for Campus Operations and Human Resources

Marc Goodman

General Counsel

The COVID-19 outbreak has changed many aspects of our lives, and we know that the workplace environment will be no exception. Because Pepperdine will only ever be as good as the people working toward its mission, it is essential that every supervisor effectively lead their team as we navigate different scenarios based on the employee's position, service to constituents, etc. While some employees will look forward to returning to campus or continuing to work remotely, others may feel uneasy or be unable to for a multitude of reasons, including childcare issues or caring for a loved one in a vulnerable population.

As supervisors, we have the great opportunity to manage, lead, and mentor our teams. We are responsible for the work of our departments to fulfill the University's mission, as well as the well-being of each team member who dedicates his or her days and careers to serving the Pepperdine community. We set the tone for the culture, quality of work, and customer service for our teams.

Lauren Cosentino, Vice President for Campus Operations and Human Resources, and Marc Goodman, General Counsel, offer this presentation to supervisors to provide tools and resources on how to best lead employees back to campus, including how to manage various employee accommodation and leave requests.

A time of Q and A will take place at the end of the presentation.
