

PEPPERDINE SCHOOL OF LAW

FALL 2016 COURSE SCHEDULE

As of: 11/29/2016

NOTES ON 2016/2017 SCHOOL OF LAW CALENDAR

NOTICE: UPPER DIVISION EXPERIENTIAL COURSE WORK AND PRO BONO SERVICE REQUIREMENTS:

All students beginning the first year of their JD program after May 1, 2015 are required to have completed at least 15 units of practice-based, experiential course work, and 50 hours of qualifying pro bono service as defined by the California State Bar. Courses approved by the Vice Dean as counting towards the upper division experiential course work requirement will be identified in the course schedule for each semester. For more information about these requirements, please see section 14.15 of the Academic Policy Statement at <http://law.pepperdine.edu/current-students/academic-policy-forms.htm>

Students may satisfy the Pro Bono Service Requirement through unpaid legal work under the supervision of a licensed attorney at qualifying placements or projects. The Director of Clinical Education must approve placements or projects that comply with the state bar's definitions of pro bono. The standards are available on the School of Law's website under Experiential Education. Students completing qualified pro bono service must complete a form, available online and in the Clinical Education program offices, to certify compliance. All clinical courses and qualifying externships and practicums will satisfy the pro bono requirement.

NOTICE: UPPER DIVISION WRITING REQUIREMENT

The faculty has enacted an upper division writing requirement as mandated for all law schools by the ABA. Courses that provide an opportunity to fulfill the writing requirement for students beginning the first year of their JD program before May 1, 2015 are identified in the schedule. For more information about these requirements, please see sections 14.12 and 14.13 of the Academic Policy Statement at <http://law.pepperdine.edu/current-students/academic-policy-forms.htm>

NOTICE: PRIORITY ENROLLMENT FOR STRAUS DISPUTE RESOLUTION ELECTIVES

Students participating in either the dispute resolution certificate or masters in dispute resolution program will receive priority enrollment in all dispute resolution elective courses. Students not participating in either program may place themselves on a waitlist and seat availability will be determined at the beginning of the semester. Seats not filled by program participants will be released to JD students on the waitlist.

NOTICE: ADVANCE ASSIGNMENTS FOR INTENSIVE COURSES

A class syllabus including any advance reading and/or writing assignments for intensive classes will be emailed to students 3-4 weeks prior to the start of class. Please note that it is each student's responsibility to review the syllabus well before the class begins and complete any advance assignments. Students who show up the first day unprepared risk being dropped from the class.

NOTICE: UPPER DIVISION ELECTIVE COURSES

Courses offered may be subject to cancellation if there are fewer than 10 students enrolled for the course two weeks prior to the first day of class.

RESCHEDULING EXAMS

STUDENTS MAY NOT PETITION TO RESCHEDULE A FINAL EXAM UNLESS TWO FINAL EXAMS ARE TO BE TAKEN ON THE SAME DAY

PETITIONS TO CHANGE ONE OF TWO EXAMS SCHEDULED FOR THE SAME DAY MUST BE FILED BY THE SEVENTH WEEK OF CLASSES

Every effort has been made to avoid conflicts between required courses and in the final exam schedules. As noted above, final exams will not be rescheduled unless a student has two final exams scheduled in the same day. Therefore, it is important for you to pay attention to the final exam schedule when you are selecting your courses. For additional details concerning the law school final exam policies see the Academic Policy Statement (Section 6) at

<http://law.pepperdine.edu/current-students/academic-policy-forms.htm>

Clinical and Externship Courses Notes

Fall 2016

Clinics

Students receive credit for the scheduled, required class sessions and for work in the clinic under faculty supervision.

In the Legal Aid, Low Income Taxpayer, Special Education, and Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy clinics students and professors will determine the work schedule for students in the clinics. The Community Justice Clinic, the Special Education Advocacy Clinic, and the Restoration and Justice Clinic meet and work primarily on-campus in the clinical suite.

In the Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, students must apply and register only with approval of the professor, and students must commit to working two terms in the clinic.

In the Legal Aid Clinic and Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, students will work primarily at the Union Rescue Mission in downtown Los Angeles. In the Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, students will work primarily with the professor at his firm in Burbank. All classes will be at the School of Law.

The Fair Employment and Housing Mediation Clinic will be housed in the Mediation Division at California's civil rights enforcement agency, The Department of Fair Employment and Housing. The Department hires a Civil Rights Fellow for a year fellowship after law school and approximately 50% of Fellows are retained for permanent employment in the litigation department. This class requires a special application. Anyone interested in participating should speak with Professor Stephanie Blondell in the Straus Office.

In the Mediation Clinic students have the opportunity to mediate actual disputes. The Mediation Clinic will require 2 hours of class time weekly (scheduled) and approximately 8 hours of fieldwork per week. Students are advised to leave two time blocks (2 mornings, 2 afternoons or 1 of each) in their schedule to accommodate mediations at various courthouses throughout Los Angeles County.

All clinical courses fulfill the Pro Bono Service Requirement, count toward the experiential learning requirement and are graded as High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail.

Practicums

For the Employment Law Practicum in Pacoima and the Veterans Law Practicums in Ventura County and in Los Angeles County, students must meet the minimum requirements outlined in the course description. Students must also submit a resume, letter of interest and writing sample for lawyers at the field placement to review and rank their preferred candidates. Students will be selected and notified of their selection in the practicum.

The Employment Law Practicum and the Veterans Law Practicums satisfy the pro bono requirement and count toward the experiential learning requirement.

Clinical and Externship Courses Notes

Fall 2016

Externships

Students interested in participating in an externship should contact Professor Peterson, Director of Externships, at Richard.Peterson@pepperdine.edu or Donna Brabec, Clinical Program Manager, at donna.brabec@pepperdine.edu. Students may not register themselves for externship courses but must complete the requisite paperwork and must receive approval from Professor Peterson to register for an externship.

Students must register for an externship by the deadline for add/drop; students who secure a field placement after the add/drop deadline may only enroll for up to 2 units of credit and must secure a faculty advisor.

Each unit of externship credit requires 52.5 hours of work at the student's field placement, and students must register in advance for the number of units for which they will work. Students may earn up to 10 units.

Students must also attend mandatory, bi-weekly externship workshops during the term of their first externship, and the time spent in workshops may count toward the students' required time in the field. Students who are taking externships for the second or third term are not required to attend the workshops.

The Director of Externships must approve all field placements in advance of registration. In general, field placements qualify for externship credit if the student is engaged in legal work, under the supervision of a licensed attorney, not for pay, in judicial, governmental, public interest or public service law offices. Field placements in in-house counsel offices in entertainment and other corporate offices may also qualify. Work in private, for-profit law firms does not qualify unless the student's work is exclusively on pro bono matters.

Externships taken for 3 units or more fulfill the upper division skills requirement or count towards the experiential learning requirement. Qualifying externships will satisfy the pro bono requirement if in placement meets the standards of the pro bono definition. All externships are graded as High Pass/Pass/Credit/Fail.

New Courses Offered

Fall 2016

Faith, Leadership and the Practice of Law

This course is designed to challenge and train law students to ignite their faith, understand legal ethics, cultivate their character and integrate faith, ethics and character in the practice of law that will result in professional leaders who pursue justice in the world as the highest of callings. Students will read, reflect on, and discuss books on faith, law practice, justice, and leadership. The course invites weekly dialog on the role of faith in defining ones purpose and how that purpose can be integrated and fulfilled within the practice of law. These discussions allow students to assess the best way to find sustainable and fulfilling employment consistent with who they are and what impact they hope to have in society. Guest speakers from the fields of faith and justice will engage with students and reflect on how they integrated their faith with their profession.
