There is a presumption that students who plan to practice law, or who, even if they do not plan to practice law, nevertheless plan to take a bar examination, should take all seven of the upper division required courses. Under Section 14.11 of the Academic Policy, the Academic Dean has discretion to waive up to two of the seven requirements. Ethical Lawyering cannot be waived. Please answer the following questions if you are seeking a waiver.

1. Which of the following courses do you wish to waive?
   - □ Corporations
   - □ Constitutional Law: Individual Rights & Liberties
   - □ Criminal Procedure
   - □ Remedies
   - □ Evidence
   - □ Wills and Trusts

2. Have you already been granted a waiver?
   - □ No  □ Yes, in course: __________________________________________________

3. Please explain why you are requesting this waiver.
