Visiting students must be in good standing at an ABA-accredited law school. In order to process your file, we require that, in addition to this application, you submit:

- 1.) A letter of good standing from your law school
- 2.) A letter from your law school permitting you to take units through Pepperdine University School of Law's London Program
- 3.) A current transcript
- 4.) A statement of intent of 350 words or less (approximately 1/2 page, single-spaced) to describe why you would like to participate in the Fall London Law Program and how you will use this experience to enhance your long-term goals and your academic career

Please submit the application and all supporting materials to:
