1. This program was reviewed by an outside professor from USC, and evaluated by Associate Professor Oh. It was found that PR students are burdened by having to comply with a requirement meant for journalism students, and that MSCO 380 focused on advertising. PR 390 will replace this class. These two additions offer PR students more options, and open them up to opportunities to minor in other areas.

1. These proposals were passed with two abstained (Stone Watt) and (Amaro). The FILM proposal maintains cross listing, which the Communication Division opposes. The committee learned that this program's students work on a senior project, rather than a senior thesis due to the nature of the project in question. They also learned this will require 6 units with an adjunct professor.

1. It was proposed that these changes are made to give students the skills employers in their field expect. These changes would also stabilize the status of two tenured professors, and end cross-listing that has caused issues between the division and OneStop in the past. The division was asked to hold on to this proposal for two years. However, the budget section of this proposal was not complete, and the rest of the proposals applicable to these will be reviewed during the December 3, 2018 SAC meeting.

1. These proposals were passed in three parts (items 1, items 2 – 14, items 15-29 and item 20). Items 2-14 involve adding three social science courses to the non-profit major and a language change that will make class descriptions more applicable to the classes they describe. Three proposals need adjustments before going on to a UAC meeting.

Next SAC meeting: December 3rd from 2-5pm in CCB 140
