Cultrual Spotlight

No need to wait to enjoy the city and the opportunities it brings! One of the major activities you can embrace in your time in DC is Museum Hopping. However, there are many ways one can already interact and get to know these organizations!

Enjoy El perro del hortelano (The Dog in the Manger) online from Dec 2, 2020 through Jan 3, 2021! This event is sponsored GALA. GALA stands for Grupo de Artistas Latino Americanos or Group of Latin American Artists. Their Hispanic Theater has been a National Center for Latino Performing Arts since 1976. The theater's mission is to share the Latino arts and cultures with a diverse audience.

Fall in The District

Fall in DC is one of the most magical and scenic moments you will ever encounter. The yellow, orange, and red leaves embrace you with a nice cold breeze everywhere you go. To the side you will find one of my favorite instagram accounts that truly portray the city's beauty during this time of the year. Activities that one can attend at this time includes fall festivals, light shows, pumpkin patches, walks down the National Mall, or the GW Memorial Parkway, as well as visiting the U.S. National Arboretum. I recommend writing down the activities you would like to do that way you do not miss your chance to go once you are there. Hope this small list helps!

“MONTHLY POLITICAL FOOD FOR THOUGHT

“So, let us not be blind to our differences—but let us also direct attention to our common interests and to the means by which those differences can be resolved. And if we cannot end now our differences, at least we can help make the world safe for diversity. For, in the final analysis, our most basic common link is that we all inhabit this small planet. We all breathe the same air. We all cherish our children's future. And we are all mortal.” -John F. Kennedy

PROGRAM UPDATES

Congratulations and welcome to the family, our newest DC members!

I hope everyone was able to thrive through finals, and you are all now able to get the well deserve rest we all need during the break! I know we were all busy during the semester. If you have any questions regarding the program, do not hesitate to contact me. I would love to chat with you.
