

Summer 2017 - Buenos Aires

Students in the BA program must purchase their books before the program and bring their books with them to the program.

All students must have their textbooks on the first day of class.

Even though you can buy them online, delivery may be delayed by customs/import duties and local postal requirements. It is really complicated to buy them in Argentina since; sometimes they keep them in customs or in the Post offices and it is harder to get

It is against the law to photocopy books in Argentina. One month before the program starts you will receive an email with the books available for a library loan.

Please address any textbook questions to Tati Guerrini at Tati.Guerrini@pepperdine.edu
