

SHANGHAI NEWSLETTER

IMPORTANT UPDATES

DECEMBER 1: IPRA application deadline.

This position is a great opportunity to make some extra traveling cash, develop leadership skills, and develop relationships to the people in your cohort.

January 15: deadline for submitting passport copy.

UPCOMING: For the spring semester, look forward to the visa workshop and IP orientation sessions to get you prepared as we move closer to departure.

你好我的朋友们！

What's up, Adventurers!! I hope y'all have wrapped up your finals and finished the semester strong.

This is our first edition of the Shanghai Program newsletter- It'll serve as a quick source for y'all to get Important Information regarding the program as well as get connected to some Ideas and experiences to get you thinking more about how to make the most of your abroad experience.

Adventure Spotlight

The Shanghai Fake Market - one of the most frequented stops for Shanghai students. Located off Line 2 at The Shanghai Science and Technology Museum metro stop (about 45 mins from the jia), the fake market is home to just about any counterfeit product you could imagine - designer clothing, normal clothing, even electronics, toys, and tools. The fake market is an outstanding location for finding unique items to expand your wardrobe and an exciting place to work on your bartering skills.

“

If you don't know what you're eating - you're in the right place!